'Swim with Jo' take the upmost care and attention when conducting their classes. Your safety is paramount. However, there is also a duty of care for each parent and child or any other person/s wishing to participate in or spectate the lesson.

Care and attention is required within the pool and surrounding areas as any body of water has obvious inherent risks including, and not limited to drowning.

Neither 'Swim with Jo', its employees nor teachers/instructors accept any responsibility for any death, injury or loss suffered nor damage to any part of the swimming pool or building in which the pool is located, or any adjoining lands, buildings or boundaries caused by you, your child or those in whose care you have placed your child, for the purpose of classes with or observing 'Swim with Jo' sessions resulting from conduct, matter or condition under your or their control, which amounts to contributory negligence whilst attending any of 'Swim with Jo' sessions.

All 'Swim with Jo' teachers / instructors are all ASA qualified and have current CRB disclosures checks or DBS checks before they are allowed to teach.

Swimming teachers are only responsible for the pupils during their swimming lessons and parents / guardians are responsible at all other times including trips to the toilet etc. throughout lessons. The swimming lesson will begin when the swimming teacher accepts charge of the pupil and ends when the lesson finishes.

'Swim with Jo' cannot accept any responsibility for any incident that was the sole responsibility of the teacher in charge of the class or lesson in which the incident occurred. Full liability, in such cases, is with the teacher delivering the lesson.

Parents and guardians must remain on the premises whilst the pupil is attending their swimming lesson. This is imperative in the case of the unlikely event of a medical emergency, building evacuation or other emergency situation. Pupils must be collected promptly at the end of each lesson.

Parents / guardians must never distract the teacher during a lesson and should direct all communication either at the end of the lesson when it is finished to by e-mail to the swim school. Parents / guardians should not speak with the teacher during the period that lessons are in progress as it is dangerous and will distract the teacher from the supervision of the pupils in their lesson.

'Swim with Jo' and its teachers takes no responsibility for any one, in a parent and child class holding their child wrong or doing any activities, that they are not instructed to do by the teacher throughout the session. We also take no responsibility for the risks of submerging your child underwater which has obvious inherent risks including, and not limited to drowning. This is done entirely at the parents / guardians own risk.

'Swim with Jo' and their teachers take no responsibility of any incident resulting from anything they cannot control including the facilities they use and everything in them, including the pool and the water. Full liability in such cases, is with the facility in which the lesson takes place.

In the absence of any proven negligence, lack of due diligence or breach of duty by the teacher / instructor(s) 'Swim with Jo', the employees, the participation of you, your spouse / partner, child or those in whose care you have placed your child for the purpose of attending or observing 'Swim with Jo' sessions is done so entirely at your own risk.
