

Swim With Jo takes the upmost care and attention when conducting their classes. Your safety is paramount, however there is also a duty of care for each parent and child or any other person/s wishing to participate or spectate the lessons.

Care and attention is required in the pool and surrounding areas as anybody has obvious inherent risks including, and not limited to drowning.

Neither Swim With Jo, its employees nor teacher/instructors accept any responsibility for any death, injury or loss suffered nor damage to any part of the swimming pool or building in which the pool is located, or any adjoining lands, buildings or boundaries caused by you, your child or those in whose care you have placed your child, for the purpose of classes with or observing Swim with Jos’s swim school sessions resulting from the conduct, matter or condition under your or their control, which amounts to contributory negligence whilst attending any of Jo swim school sessions.

All Swim With Jos teachers/instructors are all ASA qualified and have a current DBS disclosure checks before they are allowed to teach.

Swimming teachers are only responsible for the pupils during their swimming lesson and parents / guardians are responsible at all other times including trips to the toilet etc throughout lessons. The swimming lessons will be when the swimming teacher accepts charge of the pupil and ends when the lesson finishes.

Swim With Jo cannot accept any responsibility, any incident that was the sole responsibility of the teacher in charge of the class or lesson in which the incident accord. Full liability, in such cases, is with the teacher delivering the lesson.

Parents / Gaudian must remain on the premises whilst the pupil is attending their swimming lesson. This is imperative in the case of a unlikely event of a medical emergency, building evacuation or other emergency situation. Pupils must be collected promptly at the end of each lesson.

Swim With Jo and its teachers take no responsibility for anyone, in a parent and child class holding their child wrong or doing any activities, that they are not instructed to do by the teacher throughout the session. We also take no responsibility for the risks of submerging your child underwater which has obvious inherent risks including, and not limited to drowning. This is done entirely at parents/guardian’s own risk.

Swim With Jo swim school and their teachers take no responsibility of any incident resulting from anything they cannot control including the facilities they use and anything in them, including the pool and the water. Full liability in such cases, is with the facility in which the lesson takes place.

In the absence of any proven negligence, lack of due diligence or breach of duty by the teacher / instructor(s) “Swim With Jos” the employees, the participation of you, your spouse / partner, child or those in whose care you placed your child for the purpose of attending or observing “Swim With Jo” sessions is done so entirely at your own risk.
